

Reconciliation (confession)

Phone or check parish bulletin for times

Enter the confessional booth, kneel and say "Bless me father for I have sinned, it has been _____ months/years since my last confession."

The priest gives a brief blessing and you continue "these are my sins".

Tell your sins and end with "this is my confession father".

The priest will ask you to say an act of contrition:

"My God I am sorry for having offended you, who I should love above all else.
I resolve, with your help to avoid sin, and whatever leads me into sin."

The priest will give you absolution (God's forgiveness), assign you an act of penance (prayer usually) and dismiss you. The sacrament of reconciliation is completed when you perform your assigned penance. All past sins not remembered and not confessed are forgiven; the confession is invalid if we deliberately fail to confess a sin.

Catholic Daily Prayer

Our Father

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray, and do thou O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into Hell, Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls...Amen

We observe our soul by observing our actions, are we patient, moderate, chaste, forgiving? Motivation for spiritual growth is our greatest aid, we call to mind the resurrection in which our state of soul will give form to our person for all eternity. Personal shortcomings large or small take effort to overcome, they are actually deformations of our soul (due to original sin) giving rise to imperfect actions. The first step in spiritual advancement is to control what we feed our soul. Anything we consent to, good or bad forms our soul - television, videos, websites, prayer, patience. The soul, once free of sin may work toward freedom from self (Mt 16:24). Self satisfaction, pity, glory, and any form of self necessarily limits the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. We no longer eat, sleep, work, enjoy according to our will but God's.

The Blessed Virgin Mary
to Sr. Benigna Consolata Ferrero

"One "Hail Mary" said with a pure will in the time of spiritual aridity, has much more value than an entire Rosary recited in the midst of consolations" (explanation: To receive joy and hope is good, but to create it from misery and trial, and share it (spiritually) is better.)

Universal Prayer of Pope Clement XI

O my God, I believe in you, increase my faith. I trust in you, strengthen my trust. I love you with my whole heart, let me love you more and more. I am sorry for my sins, deepen my sorrow. I worship you as my first beginning, I long for you as my last end. I praise you as my constant benefactor, and call on you as my sovereign protector.

Guide me with your wisdom, correct me with your justice, comfort me with your mercy, defend me with your power.
To you I consecrate all, my thoughts to be fixed on you; my words to have you as my theme; my actions to reflect my love for you; my sufferings to be endured for your greater glory. I want to do what you ask, in the way you ask, for as long as you ask, because you ask it. I beg of you to enlighten my understanding, strengthen my will, purify my heart and make me holy.

Give me strength O my God, to expiate my offenses, to overcome my temptations, to subdue my passions, and to acquire the virtues proper for my state. Let me love you, my Lord and God, and see myself as I really am; a pilgrim in this world, a Christian called to respect and love all whose lives I touch, those in authority over me or those under my authority, my friends and my enemies.

Help me to conquer sensuality by mortification, anger with gentleness, avarice by generosity, apathy by fervor.
Help me to forget myself and reach out toward others.
Make me prudent in planning, courageous in dangers.
Make me patient in suffering, humble in prosperity. Keep me Lord, attentive at prayer, temperate in food and drink, diligent in my work, firm in good intentions. Let my conscience be clear, my conduct without fault, my speech blameless, my life well ordered. Put me on guard against my human weaknesses. Let me cherish your love for me, keep your law and come at last to your salvation.

Teach me to realize that this world is passing, that my true future is the happiness of Heaven, that life on earth is short, and the life to come eternal. Help me to prepare for death with a proper fear of judgment, but a greater trust in your goodness. Lead me safely through death to the endless joy of Heaven. Grant this through Christ our Lord...Amen.

"2000 years ago, prayer joined to sacrifice constituted the most powerful force the world has known."- Pope John Paul II
